Take Your Child To Work

U.S. Embassy Koror welcomed the children of Mission employees to the first "Take Your Child to Work Day". Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work is an educational program in the United States and revolve around parents taking their children to work for one day. By extension U.S. embassies and consulates also have traditionally observed the practice. It is the successor to Take Our Daughters to Work Day, founded by Gloria Steinem and the Ms. Foundation for Women in 1993 and was expanded to include boys in 2003. It occurs annually in April. At Embassy Koror, the day provided an opportunity for the children to learn about international diplomacy and the diverse and important roles their parents play in Embassy operations.

Ambassador Reed-Rowe, Mission Deputy Richard McCrensky and U.S. Embassy staff and their children.
